THE NEW NOVELS AT EVERY LIBRARY.

ROSE and RUE. By MRS. COMPTON READE. 3 vols. crown 8vo.

"Suggesting comparison with the highest of contemporary novels—'Academy.'

"A better written novel we have not read for a long time, or one more enjoyable. It is of surprising interest."—Scotsman. "Comely, graceful, and agreeable, though resting on a plot of singular simplicity, will be found to be a repose with variety, with genuine humour and artistic merit. Not only are the characters well conceived, but both in dialogue and action they preserve their consistency throughout the narrative. A more beautiful picture of pure girlhood than Tryphena it were difficult to imagine. The character of that talented hypocrite Acton Leach, the Methodist minister, who is drawn from the eyes of his author, is one of the most interesting with keenness, is drawn with surprising power. The strange complexity of his moral organization forms a study in itself. 'Rose and Rue' is a book which, from a literary point of view, has not been surpassed by any one novel of the present season."—The Queen.

"Written in a brisk epigrammatic style, with a great deal of bold colour; with not a single dull page, 'Rose and Rue' is worthy of high praise."—Richie.

II.

THE DECEASED WIFE'S SISTER. To which is added, MY BEAUTIFUL NEIGHBOUR. By SYDNEY MOSTYN, Author of "The Surgeon's Secret." 3 vols. crown 8vo.

III.

THE SISTERS LAWLESS. By the Author of "Rose Noel." 3 vols. crown 8vo.

"An excellent novel, with a briskness and originality which makes the book pleasant reading throughout."—Vanity Fair. "Miss Smith, the pretty little American girl, is unfairly treated in not having a book all to herself; so active and droll as she is, so impudent and good-hearted, and all that is contradictory and bewitching. When the reader's attention is engaged it never slumbers nor sleeps any more until all the tale is told."—Times.

IV.

LONELY CARLOTTA. By A. E. N. BEWICK, Author of "Flirts and Flirters." 3 vols. crown 8vo.

"An able story..... Miss Bewick has written an original, readable novel; and current topics, political, educational, and otherwise, are pleasantly and gracefully touched upon. The book is free from the least taint of vulgarity, and adds much to the author's already acknowledged fame as a writer."—Morning Post.

"This book deserves to be read."—Vanity Fair. "A story of unusual excellence throughout."—Graphic.

V.

ELVIRA, LADY CASTERTON. From the Swedish of Professor SCHWARTZ by ANNIE WOOD. 3 vols. crown 8vo.

SUPERNATURAL RELIGION;

AN INQUIRY INTO THE REALITY OF DIVINE REVELATION.

The Second Edition, thoroughly revised, with Additions.

"The Writer of 'Supernatural Religion' has conferred a boon on all students of theology. Calm and judicial in tone, fully acquainted with the facts of the case, and scrupulously exact in stating the arguments of adversaries,—no more formidable assailant of orthodoxy could well be imagined. Whenever the history of Christian theology in the nineteenth century shall be written, a place of honour will belong to the anonymous Author of 'Supernatural Religion.'"

Westminster Review.

"We give a hearty welcome to this learned and able work.... This is the belief (regarding the supernatural character of the events narrated in the Christian Scriptures) which we desire to commend to the reader's consideration, and we are glad to have so good an excuse for doing so as is afforded by the masterly examination of the evidences for the antiquity of the Christian Scriptures contained in these volumes. So far as we know, it is an unparalleled specimen in the English language. It might have been a little condensed, but when we have said this much, we have only unqualified praise for the literary workmanship of this part of the volume.... The account given of the early Christian writers is a full mine of information on this subject, alloyed indeed with no small prejudice, yet so wonderfully faithful and comprehensive, that any error may be detected by the light of the Writer's own searching and scholarly criticism."

Speculator.

"The book proceeds from a man of ability, a scholar and researcher, whose discussions are conducted in a judicial method. He writes like an earnest seeker after truth, looking around at all particulars pertaining to his inquiries, and following up every question to its proper end. We have been struck with his complete mastery of the literature. He knows well all German and Dutch books relating to the criticism of the New Testament, as well as the English ones. His scholarship, indeed, is apparent throughout.... Along with a wide and minute scholarship, the unknown writer shows great acuteness. He has the critical faculty in union with a calm spirit. Reverent within, his volumes bespeak the serious notice of everyone concerned about the records of religion."—Antennaeum.

A IMPORTANT CORRESPONDENCE.

BY DR. J. M. THOMAS

THE REV. SIR EDWARD R. JODRELL, Bart.

To Messrs. FELTOE & SONS,
26 Conduit Street, Regent Street, W.

When at Sall I received an Analytical Report of your "Specialité" Sherry, and you must forgive me for saying that at first I regarded the whole matter as a most egregious piece of humbug. Having, however, tasted the Wine in question, and found it most agreeable to the palate, I determined, on my own responsibility, to have it analysed for myself, having fully also determined previously to expose any hoax pro bono publico, or to give you the benefit of the analysis, should it turn out in your favour. I have the pleasure to forward you Professor Redwood's (of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain) Analysis, which says more than I can express. I am very particular as to the Wine I drink, and as I have been hitherto buying "every-day Sherry" at 60s. a dozen, I am rejoiced to find now that I can purchase Wine of equal strength and superior bouquet at half that price. This should be known to the "General Public," and you can make any use you deem proper of this letter, and also of Professor Redwood's most elaborate analysis.

21 Portland Place, London : December 9, 1873.

Yours faithfully,
(Signed) EDWARD REPPS JODRELL.

The Rev. Sir E. R. JODRELL.

SIR,—I have completed the Analysis of the sample of Sherry you left with me, and proceed to report the results. Judged by the palate, it might be represented as a light, moderately dry Wine, with nothing to object to in its flavour or apparent strength. It is slightly acid to test-paper, and has a specific gravity of 986·8. These characters correspond with those of a sample of reputed good Montilla Sherry, the specific gravity of which was found to be 986·6, and the acidity almost identical with that of your sample.

I proceeded to make a more minute analysis, the results of which were as follows:—

	20·0 parts in 100
Absolute alcohol, by volume	0·54 "
Free or unneutralized acid, partly volatile and partly non-volatile	0·1 "
Volatile acid (acetic acid)	2·5 "
Sugar and extract	0·45 "
Ash, from incineration of extract	NONE.
MINERAL ACID, or inorganic matter, NOT YIELDED BY GRAPE JUICE

THESE RESULTS ARE ALL SATISFACTORY. The proportion of alcohol is that found in the best samples of Sherry, the volatile acid (acetic acid) is not more than is usually present, and the fixed acid is the TRUE ACID OF THE GRAPE, namely tartaric acid. The ash is not more than it should be, and contains nothing foreign to the grape.

In preparing this Analysis, I have been enabled to observe that the alcohol, when separated from the other constituents of the Wine, was PURE IN FLAVOUR AND OF GOOD QUALITY, and that there was NOTHING OBJECTIONABLE in the extract or other products that were separated in the process of analysis.

I am, yours truly,
(Signed) T. REDWOOD, Professor of Chemistry to the PHARMACEUTICAL SOCIETY OF GREAT BRITAIN.

DIETETIC RECORD.
FELTOE'S
"SPECIALITÉ" SHERRY.

"This wine has now maintained its reputation more than three years. Comparing an analysis which we made recently with the analysis of three years ago, we are glad to see that it is still an honest, sound wine, free from acid, and of excellent quality. It has attained and deserves a great medical reputation."

The
BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL
writes, March 1, 1873, in its Official Report upon the
ANNUAL MUSEUM at BIRMINGHAM:—

"Only one wine was shown this year—FELTOE'S 'SPECIALITÉ' SHERRY—a wine which is deservedly making its way chiefly through the recommendations of the Medical Profession, founded on its honestly excellent qualities, its freedom from acidity and heat, and its uniform soundness."

The PUBLIC ANALYST for PADDINGTON
writes, January 17, 1874:—

"I have had it tested in my laboratory, and am satisfied that it is a genuine, high-class, natural wine, and free from any admixture or acidity. Invalids, and persons who have gouty or uric acid tendencies, and require wine as a beverage in moderate quantity, will find your 'SPECIALITÉ' SHERRY pure and wholesome."
